I. Checklist for a Voluntary Return

Credit: IOM / Nguyen Khac Son 2011

Before the Return

The returnee should

- ✓ prepare travel documents with a valid passport or laissez-passer
- ✓ request documents from the German authorities that might be needed later on, such as birth certificate, marriage certificate, divorce certificate, educational certificates, etc. issued in Germany
- ✓ get information concerning the arrival at the airport and the onward journey. There are shuttle buses from every major airport to the respective city center and bus stations for onward transportation to other provinces and taxis for specific transport demands
- ✓ there are no vaccinations required for Vietnamese to enter the country
- ✓ find a temporary accommodation

After the Return

The returnee should

- ✓ carry out residence book registration
- ✓ register their child or children up to 6 years old with free health insurance by the government. This should be done at the People's Committee at the commune or precinct level, where the returnee has their residence registered. The birth certificate of the child is required
- ✓ apply for social welfare
- ✓ contact local schools or other educational institutions for the education of their children

II. Health Care

I. General Information

Viet Nam’s health care system is divided into compulsory health insurance and voluntary health insurance.

Compulsory health insurance:

Employees of companies or organizations who participate in the compulsory social insurance need to join the compulsory health insurance. (for the fees: see Table I). Students also participate in the compulsory health insurance. Participants should pay compulsory social insurance, health insurance, and unemployment insurance altogether.

Benefits:

The public insurance covers a certain percentage of medication and treatment depending on the classification of the participant and the hospital they choose.

Costs:

Social insurance	Health insurance	Unemployment insurance
Cost for the employer (% of salary)
18	3	1
Cost for the employee (% salary)
8	1,5	1

Voluntary health insurance:

This insurance is open to all members of one household, except for those paying compulsory health insurance.

Children up to 6 years old are provided with free health insurance by the government. The returnee needs to contact the People’s Committee to register their child for a free health insurance card and has to present a birth certificate and residence registration documents.

The first person registered in the household pays 4.5% of the general minimum salary each month; the second, third, and fourth person pay 90%, 80% and 70% of the fees paid by the first person; the fifth person pays 60%. Minimum salaries are defined and adjusted by the government. For the registration, it is necessary to contact social insurance agencies at the people’s committee at the registered area.

2. Medical treatment and medication

Medical facilities and doctors:

Please see lists of hospitals in regional centers under VIII. Provincial hospitals, specialized in treating serious diseases, offer all essential diagnostic services and are equipped with necessary facilities.

Procedure of admission:

Health care services are open to everyone; the national ID and the health insurance card are required. If the beneficiary has no insurance they have to bear all costs.

Availability and costs of medication:

Most of the common medical generics are available in Viet Nam.

Health Care System: Access for Returnees

Eligibility and requirements:
Voluntary health insurance should be purchased for the whole family, except members, who are already registered in public insurance with their companies/offices/schools.

Registration procedure :
Voluntary health insurance can be purchased at the Social Insurance Agency at the commune/precinct where the applicant has its residence registration.

Required documents:
The applicant needs a national ID, household registration book (or temporary residence registration), and health insurance cards of other family members (if any) for voluntary health insurance registration.

Housing facilities for returnees / social housing
There are no (temporary) housing facilities or special social housing available for returnees.

2. Ways/assistance to find accommodation

There are services assisting with the search for housing. However, these depend on your demands and require a certain level of fees. Most of the services are private businesses. Houses and apartments for rent are advertised in newspapers, websites or leaflets.

Other papers directly relevant to specific cases:

- Marriage certificate (in case wife and husband live together). In case of absence of marriage certificate, birth certificate of joint children can be presented instead
- Birth certificate (provided that they want to register permanent residence for newborn)
- Decisions on job transfer, recruitment, return from military service, retirement or job discontinuation
- License granted by the Immigration Department (depending on specific cases for the purpose of presentation: repatriation certificate or recommendation letter)
- Residence book or collective residence registration certificate or identification card (if any)

3. Social grants for housing

Currently there are no social grants for housing available in Viet Nam.

Housing: Access for Returnees / Vulnerable Groups

There are no shelters available for returnee's temporary stay after return.

There is one shelter for women and children, who are VoT and victims of domestic violence, named Ngôi Nhà Bình Yên (Peace House Shelter), an institution directly subordinated to the Viet Nam Women's Union (VWU). Besides temporary accommodation, the Peace House also provides counselling, vocational training with job placement service and kindergarten to victims.

VI. Educational System

I. General Information

An application for public schools is only possible if the requirements of the previous classes were passed. The enrolment at elite schools requires to meet the schools' individual criteria. For higher education, students must pass entrance examinations.

Educational Level	Age
Kindergarten	1- 6(some accept under 12 months)
Primary Level
Primary School	6 – 10
Secondary Level
Lower secondary school	10 – 14
High School	14 – 19
Higher Education
e.g. College, University, Professional School etc.	From 19

2. Cost, loans and stipends

Costs vary between public, private and international schools and institutions. The gap between these types is large. Public schools are subsidized so that the costs are very low. Private schools are affordable for higher and middle income class. The international ones are as expensive as other international institutions in other countries.

Access and requirements to stipends and/or loans for covering tuition:

- eligible are students of state universities, colleges, business schools who are in financially difficult conditions
- loan with a maximum of 1,500,000 VND per month or VND 18,000,000 per year
- interest rates are about 0.5% per month
- the duration of the loan usually starts and ends with the term at school
- payment starts right after receiving the first monthly salary but not later than 12 months after the end of the education term
- overdue interest rates are usually 130% of the borrowing interest rate

3. Approval and verification of foreign diplomas

Foreign diplomas and certificates are accepted in the Vietnamese labor market.

Educational System: Access and Registration Procedure for Returnees

Necessary documents for returning pupils/students

- School reports of education abroad. These should be notarized and translated into Vietnamese.
- Birth certificate (notarized and translated into Vietnamese if issued abroad).
- The universities in Viet Nam decide by themselves on the equivalence of the subjects the students have taken abroad in comparison to those which the local university provides and decide further subjects or semesters the students will need to take in order to complete the relevant education in Viet Nam.

Pupils and students from ethnic minorities studying in public schools and universities are entitled to be granted a policy scholarship and social welfare.

VII. Concrete Support for Returnees

1. Reintegration assistance programs

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) provides reintegration assistance to voluntary returnees within different AVRR-programs to ensure the sustainability of their return.

The IOM assistance depends on the different programs.

2. Financial and administrative support

Besides IOM, there is no official scheme to support returnees to Viet Nam.

3. Support to start income generating activities

AGRIBANK – The Viet Nam Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development regularly provides soft loans for income generating activities to people with financial difficulties.
